Dear Parents/Carers,

I am attempting to recover books that are overdue from the library. We know that books are often mislaid but would like to ask you to check around at home and see if you have any that have not been returned. Although your child may only have one overdue book, with a thousand pupils at the school this can very soon add up to a large number missing from the school library.

I like to provide exciting new books for pupils to access and this is only possible when pupils bring back the books they have borrowed. Equally, pupils find it frustrating when the next exciting part of a series they are reading is unavailable.

With this in mind, there will be a library 'amnesty' for the next two weeks where pupils can return any TMS Library books they find at home without any judgement. Thank you in advance for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs C Sherry
Learning Resource Manager
TMS Librarian
